MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Possession of the legal requirements for the practice of physical therapy in California as determined by the California Board of Medical Quality Assurance. (Applicants may be admitted to the examination prior to meeting these requirements, but the Board of Medical Quality Assurance must determine that all legal requirements have been met before candidates will be eligible for appointment.)

THE POSITION: The classes in this series are used to perform, plan and administer a wide variety of physical therapy work in a State hospital or institution and to do other related work.

EXAMINATION INFORMATION: This Examination will consist of a Qualifications Appraisal Interview only. In order to obtain a position on the eligible list, a minimum rating of 70.00% must be attained.

Qualifications Appraisal – Weighted 100%

Scope: In addition to evaluating the competitors' relative abilities as demonstrated by quality and breadth of experience, emphasis in the examining interview will be on measuring competitively, relative to job demands, each competitor's:

Knowledge of:

1. Principles and methods of physical therapy.
2. Operations of therapeutic machines, including ultraviolet, infrared, diathermy, and inductothermy, and the physical effects resulting from such treatment.
3. Skeletal anatomy and the basic pathology involved in diseases or injuries resulting in physical or mental disabilities.
4. Construction and use of appliances and equipment suitable for home construction.

Ability to:

1. Administer various types of physical therapy.
2. Teach the disabled the fundamentals of self-care and other suitable activities.
3. Interpret physical therapy treatments to nurses, attendants, parents and clients, and teach others the treatment, which must be continued after hospitalization.
4. Prepare reports and keep records and case histories.
5. Analyze situations accurately and take effective action.

SPECIAL PERSONAL CHARACTERISTICS: A sympathetic understanding of the mentally and developmentally disabled; willingness to work in a State hospital or institution; tact; high moral standards; reliability; emotional stability and freedom from communicable diseases.

ELIGIBLE LIST INFORMATION: The resulting eligible list will be used to fill vacancies at Sonoma Developmental Center only. Names of successful competitors will be merged into the list in order of final scores regardless of the date. Eligibility expires 12 months after it is established unless the needs of the service and condition of the list warrant a change in this period.

TESTING PERIOD INFORMATION: A candidate may be tested only once during a testing period. The testing periods for this examination are; January 1 through March 31; April 1, through June 30; July 1 through September 30; October 1 through December 31.

BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION: Competitors who are successful in this examination will be required to complete (prior to an appointment in this class) a background investigation document, on which information regarding certain arrests (regardless of conviction) and felony convictions must be divulged. Information collected on this document is distinct from that required on the Standard Application for Examination, Form Std. 678 that is filled out prior to the examination. The hiring agency uses the information obtained on the background investigation document to conduct background investigations and/or to determine an individual suitability for employment.

DRUG TESTING REQUIREMENT: Applicants for positions in this class are required to pass a drug-screening test. Testing of current employees who are applicants in an examination or who are transferring is permitted only if the person does not have a current appointment to a class for which drug testing is a requirement.

VETERAN'S PREFERENCE: Veteran's Preference Credit will be added to the final score of those competitors who are successful in this examination and who qualify for, and have requested these points.

GENERAL INFORMATION

It is the candidate's responsibility to contact the Department of Developmental Services' Testing Office three days prior to the test date if he/she has not received his/her notice.

For an examination without a written feature it is the CANDIDATE'S RESPONSIBILITY to contact the Department of Developmental Services' Testing Office three weeks after the final filing date if he/she has not received a progress notice.

If a candidate's notice of oral interview, EDA, performance test fails to reach him/her prior to the day of the interview due to a verified postal error, he/she will be rescheduled upon written request.

Applications are available at State Personnel Board Offices, local offices of the Employment Development Department and the Department noted on the front.

If you meet the requirements stated on the reverse side, you may take this examination, which is competitive. Possession of the entrance requirement does not assume a place on the eligible list. Your performance in the examination described on the reverse side of this bulletin will be compared with the performance of the others who take this test, and all candidates who pass will be ranked according to their scores.

THE STATE PERSONNEL BOARD reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the service if the circumstances under which this examination was planned change. Such revision will be in accordance with civil service laws and rules and all competitors will be notified.

EXAMINATION LOCATIONS: Locations of interviews may be limited or extended as conditions warrant.

ELIGIBLE LISTS: Eligible lists established by competitive examination, regardless of date, must be used in the following order: 1) sub-divisional promotional, 2) departmental promotional, 3) multi-departmental promotional, 4) service-wide promotional, 5) departmental open, 6) open. When there are two lists of the same kind, the older must be used first. Eligible lists will expire in from one to four years unless otherwise stated on this bulletin.

PROMOTIONAL EXAMINATIONS ONLY: Competition is limited to employees who have a permanent civil service appointment. Under certain circumstances other employees may be allowed to compete under provisions of Rules 234, 235, and 235.2. State Personnel Board Rules 233, 234, 235, 235.2 and 237 contain provisions regarding civil service status and eligibility for promotional examinations. These rules may be reviewed at departmental personnel offices or at the Information Counter of the State Personnel Board offices.

GENERAL QUALIFICATIONS: Candidates must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgment, and ability to work cooperatively with others; and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the class. A medical examination may be required. In open examinations, investigation may be made of employment records and personal history and fingerprinting may be required.

INTERVIEW SCOPE: If an interview is conducted, in addition to the scope described on the reverse of this bulletin, the panel will consider education, experience, personal development, personal traits, and fitness. In appraising experience, more weight will be given to the breadth and depth of pertinent experience and evidence of the candidate's ability to accept and fulfill increasing responsibilities than the length of his/her experience. Evaluation of a candidate's personal development will include consideration of his/her recognition of his/her own training needs; his/her plans for self-development; and the progress he/she has made in his/her efforts toward self-development.

HIGH SCHOOL EQUIVALENCE: Equivalence to completion of the 12th grade may be demonstrated in any one of the following ways: 1) passing the General Educational Development (GED) Test. 2) Completion of 12 semester units of college level work. 3) Certification from the State Department of Education, a local school board, or high school authorities that the candidate is considered to have the education equivalent to graduation from high school. or 4) For clerical and accounting classes, substitution of Business College work in place of high school on a year-for-year basis.
